

Dear Gaius,

I thank you for teaching us about the four humours, we all enjoyed it. When we wrote about what happened in that fun morning the majority of us thought that it was great fun when Miss Swidryk dressed up as a Roman Soldier. Most of the boys best moment was when you were telling us about the weapons. Everyone liked it when Natasha fell off the chair whilst play acting being lazy. I was verry about the Roman Surgeons (and that some of them were Greek). Thank you again.

From Year 3
